The book is divided into two sections. The first section contains lullabies, which are gentle and soothing melodies that are perfect for calming a fussy baby or helping a child drift off to sleep. The second section contains airs, which are more lively and upbeat melodies that are perfect for dancing or playing around the campfire.

The arrangements in this book are all very well-written and easy to follow. The fingering is clear and concise, and the chord symbols are accurate. The melodies are also very well-suited to the Celtic harp, and they sound beautiful when played on this instrument.

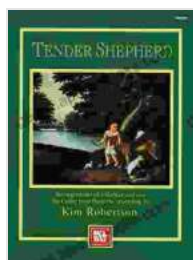

I highly recommend this book to anyone who loves Celtic harp music. The arrangements are beautiful, the melodies are haunting, and the book is a great value for the price.

Here are a few of my favorite arrangements from the book:

- "All the Pretty Little Horses"
- "Brahms' Lullaby"
- "Danny Boy"
- "Greensleeves"
- "Scarborough Fair"

I hope you enjoy this book as much as I do! It is a wonderful resource for Celtic harp players of all levels.
