When a group of teenagers decide to spend their summer vacation at an abandoned beach house, they soon discover that they are not alone. Unseen forces lurk in the shadows, their malevolent presence growing stronger with each passing night.

As strange and eerie events unfold, the teenagers find themselves trapped in a nightmarish labyrinth of fear and superstition. The walls of the old house creak and moan, whispering secrets that drive them to the brink of madness.

With each page, the tension ratchets up, drawing readers deeper into the depths of terror. Can the teenagers survive the horrors that await them at Martin Beach? Or will they succumb to the darkness that threatens to consume them?

Exclusive Illustrations

This illustrated edition of "The Horror at Martin Beach" brings the chilling story to life like never before. Acclaimed artist Graham Nolan has created a series of striking and atmospheric illustrations that perfectly capture the novel's haunting atmosphere.

From the dilapidated beach house with its menacing red eyes to the sinister creatures that lurk in the shadows, Nolan's artwork brings a new level of depth and realism to the story. These illustrations will forever etch themselves into your memory, adding to the already unsettling experience of reading this gripping tale.
