- Song of the Lark (1915)
- My Antonia (1918)
- One of Ours (1922)

Each novel tells the story of a young woman who is trying to find her place in the world. Cather's characters are strong and independent, and they refuse to be defined by the expectations of others.

Song of the Lark

Song of the Lark is the story of Thea Kronborg, a young woman who dreams of becoming a singer. Thea is born into a poor family in Colorado, but she has a natural talent for music. With the help of her teacher, she travels to Chicago to study singing. In Chicago, Thea meets a variety of people, including a wealthy patron who helps her to further her career.

Song of the Lark is a beautiful and inspiring story about the power of dreams. Cather's writing is lyrical and evocative, and she creates a vivid portrait of the American Midwest.

My Antonia

My Antonia is the story of Antonia Shimerda, a young Czech immigrant who comes to live on the Nebraska prairie. Antonia is a strong and independent woman, and she quickly adapts to her new life in America. She works hard on her family's farm, and she is always willing to help others.

My Antonia is a moving and unforgettable story about the immigrant experience. Cather's writing is compassionate and insightful, and she creates a vivid portrait of the American Midwest.

One of Ours

One of Ours is the story of Claude Wheeler, a young man who grows up on a farm in Nebraska. Claude is a sensitive and intelligent young man, but he is also restless and ambitious. He leaves home to fight in World War I, and he is killed in action.

One of Ours is a powerful and tragic story about the cost of war. Cather's writing is elegiac and moving, and she creates a vivid portrait of the American Midwest.

Pioneers Plus is a must-read for any fan of American literature. Cather's writing is lyrical and evocative, and her characters are complex and unforgettable. These three novels offer a unique and insightful look at the American Midwest and the lives of women.
