The COVID-19 pandemic has exposed the deep flaws in our global economy. Inequality has skyrocketed, the climate crisis has worsened, and millions of people have lost their jobs and livelihoods.

We cannot afford to go back to the old normal. We need a new vision for the future, a vision that puts people and the planet first. The Global New Deal is that vision.

The Global New Deal is a bold and ambitious plan for a more just and sustainable world. It offers a comprehensive roadmap for how we can build back better from the COVID-19 pandemic and create a future that works for all.

The Six Pillars of the Global New Deal

The Global New Deal is built on six pillars:

- A Green New Deal: We need to invest in a clean energy future that creates millions of new jobs and reduces our emissions.
- A Social New Deal: We need to build a more just and equitable society by investing in education, healthcare, and housing for all.
- A Global New Deal: We need to create a more just and sustainable global economy that works for everyone, not just the wealthy and powerful.
- A Digital New Deal: We need to make sure that everyone has access to the internet and the digital technologies that are transforming our world.
- A Democratic New Deal: We need to strengthen our democracies and give everyone a say in the decisions that affect their lives.
- A Feminist New Deal: We need to put women and girls at the center of our plans for a better future.

How to Make the Global New Deal a Reality

The Global New Deal is a bold and ambitious plan, but it is also achievable. We have the resources and the knowledge to create a more just and sustainable world. We just need the political will to do it.

Here are five things we can do to make the Global New Deal a reality:

1. Vote for candidates who support the Global New Deal.
2. Get involved in organizations that are working to make the Global New Deal a reality.

3. Educate yourself and others about the Global New Deal.
4. Be a voice for change.
5. Join the movement for a better future.

The Global New Deal is Our Future

The Global New Deal is not just a plan for the future, it is a vision for a better world. It is a world where everyone has a chance to succeed, where the environment is protected, and where peace and justice prevail.

Let's make the Global New Deal a reality.
