A Tapestry of Poetic Masterpieces

“

*"The world is too much with us; late and soon,
Getting and spending, we lay waste our powers;
Little we see in Nature that is ours;
We have given our hearts away, a sordid boon!" "*

William Wordsworth, "The World Is Too Much with Us"

William Wordsworth's evocative words remind us of the importance of connecting with the natural world and preserving the wonders that surround us. His poem serves as a gentle reminder to appreciate the present moment and to not let the relentless pursuit of material possessions overshadow the true joys of life.

" "I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up
And live out the true meaning of its creed:
'We hold these truths to be self-evident,
That all men are created equal.'" "

Martin Luther King Jr., "I Have a Dream"

Martin Luther King Jr.'s powerful words have inspired generations to fight for justice, equality, and a better future. His dream, expressed through poetry, continues to resonate with hearts around the world, reminding us that the pursuit of a more just and equitable society is a worthy endeavor.

"Success is not final, failure is not fatal:
It is the courage to continue that counts." "

Winston Churchill, "Never Give In"

Winston Churchill's words provide a timeless lesson in resilience and perseverance. He reminds us that true success lies not in avoiding setbacks, but in having the courage to face them head-on and never give up on our dreams.
