There roamed a unicorn, a creature of trance.
Its horn, a spiral of pure delight,
Guiding lost souls through the darkest night.”

In "The Song of the Siren," the poet weaves a haunting melody that lures us into the depths of the unknown, questioning the boundaries between reality and illusion.

Leading you astray, where dreams run free.”

On the horizon, where twilight whispers.
Golden rays embrace the earth's abyss,
A symphony of colors, nature's tryst.”
