Chapter 1: The Long Shadow of History

Baddiel meticulously traces the historical roots of anti-Semitism, from its origins in ancient Egypt to its manifestations in the Middle Ages and beyond. He uncovers the insidious ways in which Jews have been marginalized, vilified, and persecuted throughout the centuries. From the Crusades to the Holocaust, the long shadow of history casts a somber light on the horrors endured by the Jewish people.

Chapter 2: The Poison of the Present

Baddiel argues that anti-Semitism is not merely a relic of the past but a persistent scourge that continues to afflict societies today. He delves into contemporary manifestations of this hatred, from subtle microaggressions to overt acts of violence. Through personal anecdotes and incisive analysis, he sheds light on the insidious ways in which anti-Semitism seeps into our daily lives.

Chapter 3: The Power of Words

Words have the power to shape perceptions and legitimize hatred. Baddiel examines the dangerous rhetoric that fuels anti-Semitism, from the caricatures and stereotypes of the past to the subtle distortions and coded language employed by modern-day bigots. He argues that language plays a crucial role in perpetuating the dehumanization of Jews.

Chapter 4: The Complicity of Silence

Addressing the uncomfortable reality of indifference, Baddiel delves into the factors that contribute to the silence surrounding anti-Semitism. He exposes the social and political forces that suppress discussions and allow hatred to fester unchecked. Silence, he argues, is not only a betrayal of Jewish victims but also a corrosive force that erodes the fabric of society.

Chapter 5: Reclaiming Our Humanity

In the face of such adversity, Baddiel offers a message of hope and determination. He presents a path forward, urging us to reject complacency and actively combat anti-Semitism. Through education, activism, and dialogue, he argues, we can create a more just and equitable world. By reclaiming our humanity, we can ensure that Jews don't count in the annals of hatred but rather in the chronicles of human resilience and dignity.
